THE ANNUAL FOOD DRIVE

The Boy Scouts will again conduct their November food collection. You may know the now national drive began in St. Louis. Kennard School Cub Scouts have dropped off bags on November 10, so you can donate nonperishable and non-breakable cans and boxes to be picked up on Saturday morning, November 17. Help them build muscles by leaving lots for them to carry off your porch.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

KHNA had at least two block parties on Tuesday, October 2. One was in the 5000 block of Parker. We thank Marilyn Hummel for organizing as usual. We hear the Garcias of 4900 Miami had a good party as well. The weather was perfect.

BUSINESS SUPPORT FORM

One of our Board's goals was to have a new "Business Support Form" that local businesses can use to ask for our support when they apply for a permit or a variance or an appeal. The form is located at kingshighwayhills.com/business

AND YES, PLEASE SUPPORT OUR LOCAL BUSINESSES

ALDERMAN VACCARO

As you may have noticed, Joe Vaccaro is not on the agenda for our November 15 meeting. He's hoping to be back with us as soon as he can.
