LAST MONTH'S MEETING NEWS

Alderman Joe Vaccaro expressed concern about some street robberies in the 23rd Ward. He also expressed disappointment with communications with the 2nd District of the St. Louis Police Department about this concern.

LAST MONTH'S GUEST SPEAKER

was Lewis Reed, President of the St. Louis Board of Aldermen. He especially wanted to talk about a bond issue proposal before the Board which would provide new funding for the maintenance of city parks. (Forest Park Forever is a private organization raising money to help keep up that park; a donor is willing to match funds the city would set aside for Forest Park from the bond issue. Since our November meeting, the Board of Aldermen has passed the measure by a healthy margin.)

THE CUB SCOUTS of Kennard School made sure we knew about the November 19 food drive. Nearly two million cans were collected over the St. Louis area.
