SPECIAL EVENT! May 18 KENNARD SCHOOL, 5031 POTOMAC

THERE IS NO MAY MEETING

because we are having instead our first annual neighborhood festival on Saturday, May 18.

That day we want to see all our faithful members who come to nearly every meeting, joined by many of our neighbors who cannot or do not wish to attend meetings. Let's get acquainted!

OUR NEXT MEETING OF 2013

We anticipate our next meeting after this month (and our next newsletter) will be in September. Mark your calendar for Thursday, September 19 because somehow the summer will fly by and it will be fall before we know it. Nevertheless, do check in with our website from time to time and do not hesitate to phone our voice mail line if you have any concerns or need to report any neighborhood problems.

THIS NEWSLETTER is available on our website www.kingshighwayhills.com and by e-mail to those on our e-mail list. This month it is being mailed to all dues paying members. (Share your copy with your neighbors!)

Executive Board member Jennifer King-Sitzes is managing the e-mail list. (Thanks, Jennifer!)

NEWS FROM THE APRIL MEETING

We had differing viewpoints from our two aldermen. Joe Vaccaro voted against a pro-posed city law which appears to go easier on possession of marijuana. Joe Vollmer voted for it because a police officer may ticket someone in possession of a small amount instead of arresting the miscreant and taking him in to the police station. (His time could be better spent.) NSO Mike Flood discussed the citing of unrelated adults occupying the same dwelling unit; this does not usually happen unless there is over-crowding. There was discussion of a home on the 4900 block of Fairview which is settling badly.

MORE ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

We plan to fire up a grill and offer brats and hotdogs, including some from G&W on Parker east of Kingshighway; we plan to have some dessert available, and something to drink. We have access to the Kennard building, so we have indoor restrooms, and we can move inside if it rains. (But it won't.) We have invited a magical lady to provide fun for the kids and some games for the grownups. What time? 3:30 to 7:30 pm. Oh, yes, there will be a drawing for a prize.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO LEND A HAND?

A few extra hands at the festival would be welcome! Call our voice mail number 643-8454 and Chad Beffa will get back to you. Or, just show up on Saturday, May 18. Since this is our FIRST annual festival, we are indeed trying something new and hope you find you can attend and will have some fun.

OFFICERS & BOARD MEMBERS...

are customarily elected in May. Our Vice-President and Secretary positions are vacant. There are seats available on the Executive Board as well. If you think you would like to help, get acquainted at the Festival.

TO REACH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

There is an office of the Missouri Attorney General downtown. The phone number is 340-6815. The Consumer Protection Division has a hot line number, 1-800-392-8222.

3RD MONDAY

Don't leave bulk trash very near the dumpster. That especially means, don't lean trash against the dumpster.

IF YOU STILL WANT GRILLED MEAT

on the day after our Festival, go to Legion Post Bar-B-Q on the Hill Sunday, May 19.

NEIGHBORHOOD FIREWORKS

For a number of years our neighbors on The Hill have been staging a fireworks display on a Saturday near 4th of July. (so that's where all that noise has been coming from...)

The place: Sublette Park, corner of Sublette and Arsenal.

This year's date: July 6

Time: dark.

What to bring: lawn chairs, etc.

Who's going to be there: Great family crowd.

RUN TO MACKLIND

Go to macklindmile.com for more about the race on Saturday, June 29 on Macklind south of Chippewa. If our Southampton neighbors are again having Macklind Days activities, they are likely that day.

DO YOU EVER...

Drive by a longtime neighborhood business and think it has once again become an eyesore and say to yourself, "Someone should do something about that?" Call your alderman and let him know what you think.

MORE WAYS TO STAY IN TOUCH IN KINGSHIGHWAY HILLS

Go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/kingshighwayhills/> Other neighborhoods are using Yahoo groups to share ideas between meetings.

NEW MEMBERS WELCOME!

Dues are paid through August 31, 2014! if a new member joins KHNA at the Festival.

50-50

Call your Alderman to have sidewalk slabs replaced. The city will pay half . If a city tree is the culprit, the city pays 100%.

NEXT MEETING-THURS. SEPT. 19

TO MARKET, TO MARKET...

The Saturday morning market in Tower Grove Park is up and running again. It's near the pool pavilion and tennis courts.
