The St. Louis Association of Community Organizations, a.k.a. SLACO is the umbrella organization for the St. Louis Region's Neighborhood Associations. We offer support to our member organizations, as well as a variety of community-based programs.

SLACO is guided by principles of self-determination, democracy, and an undying faith in the goodness and wisdom of the people in the neighborhoods. The SLACO board consists of representatives of each member neighborhood and an alternate and four at-large members. SLACO's professional staff works on issues and projects determined by the Board consist of representatives from each member organization. SLACO is a 501(c) 3 not for profit.
